RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA SHARES THE RAYA CHEER WITH THE RUMAH WARGA EMAS BUKIT LARANG

The Management and associates of Ramada Plaza Melaka brought the Ramadan cheer to the residents at the Rumah Warga Emas Bukit Larang on Wednesday, 21st June 2017 together with the members of the Caring Club in line with the spirit of the fasting month and the soon approaching Hari Raya Aidilfitri.

Led by General Manager, Mr. Edouard Reizian, and guided by the caretaker of elderly residential community living, Puan Hayati, the team walked to each home much to the delight of the residents who had eagerly prepped themselves earlier for our visit. Handing them each a token called “duit raya”, they were all smiles as they received a card and warm greetings from the team.

“We at Ramada Plaza Melaka are committed to reach out to all those around us and are especially honored to share the festivities with this group of senior citizens, bringing them joy and support”, said General Manager, Mr. Edouard Reizian who comfortably mingled with the senior folks who were happy to converse with him. “We hope to bring cheer and hope to them in anticipation of the Hari Raya Aidilfitri”, he added.

The residents were sprung with another surprise as the hotel extended its hospitality to the residents to come over to the hotel for a dining experience during the Hari Raya Aidilfitri month, which they gratefully accepted.

The establishment spearheaded by the Jabatan Kebajikan Masyarakat Melaka houses 10 residents in a housing scheme which stretches along one street. The cluster home concept was started off back in 2004 to provide housing for the elderly residents who are found destitute, without a roof over their heads or without a next of kin to care for them.
