A DELIGHTFUL MOTHER'S DAY HIGH TEA WITH CHEF WAN

Melaka, 14th May 2017 – It was a delightful afternoon as mothers of all ages celebrated Mother's Day with a sumptuous high tea event featuring celebrity Chef Professor Datuk Chef Wan at the Ramada Plaza Melaka's Bunga Raya Grand Ballroom.

The afternoon was filled with entertainment commencing with an ensemble of songs by our own resident singers who serenaded the guest with their medley of Mother's themed songs. A beauty talk then took stage with the style and beauty coach, Justin Lim from Stylehouse Consultancy Singapore enlightening the guest on 'How to look 10kgs slimmer in an instant'. The crowd was then treated to a line dance performance which saw the guest sportingly showing their moves with the vibrant Melaka Rainbow Line Dancers. The highlight of the afternoon saw celebrity Chef Wan take to the stage much to the delight of the audience who demonstrated three of his dishes while interacting with the guest bringing them to stitches with his candid humor.

The Ramada Plaza team also presented a cake to honor all mothers attending much to their surprise, with all mothers over the age of 60 taking centre stage to represent the rest in cutting the cake. The fashion show showcased a host of outfits paraded by a line of married ladies who strutted confidently to entertain the guest. The evening culminated with lucky draw give-aways sponsored by the hotel and other kind sponsors such as Bluunis, Ultimate Collection, Uniqueen Nail Salon, Le Salon and Dacosta Spa.

"Mother's Day is a special time for us to honor all Mothers with their families and we are happy to share this afternoon with these ladies" says General Manager Mr. Edouard. "We are also delighted and honored to have Celebrity Datuk Chef Wan in our midst to enliven the celebrations", he added.

This is Chef Wan's second time showcasing his culinary skill onstage at the Ramada Plaza Melaka ballroom, where he previously was invited as the celebrity Chef for the hotel's 2015 Mother's Day celebration.
