RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA’S CARING CLUB EXTENDS ITS SPIRIT OF SHARING DURING THE RAMADAN MONTH.

Melaka, 7 June 2017 – Ramada Plaza Melaka’s Caring Club once again reached out beyond the doors of the hotel to share in the seasons’ spirit of giving and sharing through the distribution of “bubur lambuk” to the public at the hotel’s drive in entrance on Wednesday, 7th June 2017.

A group 15 of members from the Club led by General Manager, Mr. Edouard Reizian, hailed down drivers who passed through the lane to hand them the specially prepared “bubur lambuk” much to their surprise and amusement. The “bubur lambuk” which was distributed for free attracted the attention of surrounding passers-by who gratefully received a bowl each to be taken home in anticipation of breaking their fast. This delicious broth was specially prepared by our Chefs and carefully packed by the members of the Caring Club who distributed 500 packs that evening.

“The Ramadan month is a special season to remember those around us and we at Ramada Plaza Melaka want to extend this spirit of giving to all those surrounding us as we embrace the Holy month,” says Edouard Reizian, General Manager. This helps to foster the spirit of working together and reaching out to others for goodwill among our staff”, he added.

Bubur lambuk is a special delicacy prepared during the fasting month. Drove of people usually queue up at mosques to savor this much eagerly awaited meal. What makes it special is that it is usually distributed for free and can only be obtained during the fasting month.
