RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA CELEBRATES ITS STAFF IN PINK AND WHITE.

Ramada Plaza Melaka was proud to hosts its associates in its 32nd Annual Staff Party held in its Bunga Raya Ballroom on the 7th November 2016.

Staff adorned in all manners of pink and white ensemble, gathered at the foyer from as early as 5pm to collect their door gifts before stepping into the pink lighted ballroom, decorated similarly with pink and white. Staff was also treated to a photo booth area to capture their shots for the night with their colleagues as they proudly strutted into the ballroom for the array of food specially prepared by our very own Chefs.

The night started off with a bright and entertaining performance from the GP dancers followed by an inspiring welcome speech by General Manager, Mr. Edouard Reizian who earlier had successfully encouraged the organizing team to think outside the box by adopting the colour pink as part of their theme. "This is a night to celebrate all associates, to reward them for their dedication and commitment. We believe in the importance of dedicating one night to celebrate our associates who are the heart of the hotel, so lets do it with a difference" he added.

The winning department performance

It was a memorable night for associates who were awarded for their years of service spanning from five to thirty years, recognizing their commitment to the hotel over the years. Staff also showcased their hidden talents by belting out songs and swaying to the groove to win the much coveted departments and solo awards. The crowning of the best dressed winners saw the recipients walking away with cash prizes while they sashayed on the stage for their crowning moment.

Entertainment from GP Dancer lighted up the night

Committee all smiles and rearing to go

The momentum of the night continued with lucky draw giveaways and announcements of employees of the year, ending the night on a high note. This once a year get-together was a memorable pretty-in-pink night for all associates to mingle and mix without the boundaries of departments, ranks or file.
