HONG KONG KUNG FU ACTORS EXPERIENCE RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA'S WARM HOSPITALITY

Melaka, 31 January 2017 – Ramada Plaza Melaka was honored to welcome Hong Kong Kung Fu actors, Sammo Hung and his son Timmy Hung together with their families over the Chinese New Year weekend as they celebrated the festivities at Melaka.

Receiving a warm welcome by the Management led by General Manager, Edouard Reizian, they were greeted and ushered to the Executive Club Lounge for light refreshments before being guided to their luxurious Presidential Suite. “We are happy to welcome Mr. Hung and his family as he experiences our graceful hospitality and explores the historical Melaka during his stay here” says Mr. Edouard. “We take pride in providing excellent service to Mr. Hung’s family and all our guests to ensure they enjoy a comfortable stay each time they make our hotel their choice accommodation,” he added.

The hotel associates and Management were treated to photo opportunities with the Kung Fu stars who were here taking a break from their busy schedule to celebrate the New Year. Sammo Hung, also known as Hung Kam-bo, is a Hong Kong actor, martial artist, film producer and director, known for his work in many martial arts films and Hong Kong action cinema while Timmy Hung or Hung Tin-Ming is a Hong Kong actor and the eldest son of martial arts superstar Sammo Hung.

In 2004, Hung worked with Jackie Chan, in a brief but notable appearance in Disney's Around the World in 80 Days as the legendary folk hero, Wong Fei Hung, a character played by Chan in the Drunken Master series.

Ramada Plaza Melaka has previously played host to two other significant actors in the industry, namely Jackie Chan and Rajikanth who were both here on different capacities.
