FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

Memorandum of Agreement between Ramada Plaza Melaka, Wyndham Hotel Group and Indonesia Education Group

Melaka, 5 January 2016- Ramada Plaza Melaka has signed a memorandum of agreement (MoA) on Education Collaboration and career placement between Ramada Plaza Melaka under Wyndham Hotel Group and Imperia College of Hospitality, SMKN 33 Jakarta Indonesia, SMKN 1 Sewon Jogjakarta, SMKN 1 Buduran Sidoarjo, Pro Tech Abadi Sdn Bhd witnessed by Kepala Dinas Pendidikan Kabupaten Sidoarjo which has over 120 schools under their umbrella. These cluster schools specializes in hospitality management.

Ramada Plaza Melaka has been receiving the intake of Indonesian students to undergo their hospitality training since 2013. To date, over 130 students from Indonesia has benefitted from the Ramada experience of quality service standards.

According to Mr. Udo Hahn, General Manager of Ramada Plaza Melaka, "the MoA is a historic signing event and it is certainly a great privilege to be able to support the Indonesian students in career placement to prepare them for five star service industries". He then added "I am confident that this education agreement will put both countries closer in terms of education cooperation and also to create a better relationship for future generations between the countries".

The hotel has planned to collaborate with these schools to improve the skills and knowledge of students for further education with Imperia College of Hospitality and Tourism in Kuantan. This MoA paves the way for career placements within the Wyndham Hotel Group, the largest hotel group in the world by numbers with over 7500 hotels worldwide in over 60 countries.
