RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA SETS A NEW MALAYSIA BOOK OF RECORDS FOR THE LONGEST CAKE

MELAKA, 30 August 2015 – Ramada Plaza Melaka, Malaysia has achieved the Malaysia Book of Records for the longest Jalur Gemilang cake, measured officially by founder of Malaysia Book of Record, Tan Sri Datuk Danny Ooi during the ‘Malam Ambang’ National Day Celebration at Jalan Hang Tuah, Melaka on 30 August 2015.

The cake, #sehatisejiwa was named in conjunction with the theme of Malaysia’s 58th National Day Celebration, meaning one heart one soul. The hotel’s pastry team lead by Chef Ramiswazila created a 69 meter-long, 30 centimetre-width and 7 centimetre-height blueberry sponge cake and weights 760 kilograms.

Apart from the record, a charity event was held to sell the cakes after it was officiated by Chief Minister of Melaka Datuk Seri Idris Haron to share the excitement and love with those present during the National Day celebration, with net profits of the 720 – box sale to be donated to less privileged in Bahagia Mentally Handicapped Children Centre and Lembaga Pengurusan Anak Yatim & Miskin Paya Rumput Jaya, Sungai Udang (PAYASUM), in effort to purchase basic needs for the children and the homes.

The culinary team spent over 10 days of intensive preparation and baking. An estimated 90kilogram of eggs (roughly 1800 eggs), 150 kilogram of sponge mix, 180 litres of topping cream, 17 kilogram of corn oil and 28 litres of blueberry flavouring was used to create the record-breaking cake. “The teamwork and spirit of Ramada Plaza Melaka is fantastic, and I am proud to be part of the team here”, said Executive Chef Mozart who joint the team in Ramada Plaza Melaka early last month.
