RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA USHERS IN THE YEAR OF THE ROOSTER WARMLY WITH THE ELDERLY

Melaka, 20 January 2017 – The Management and Associates of Ramada Plaza Melaka once again ushers in the Chinese New Year with its annual visit to the Sejahtera Home at Bukit Baru.

Loaded with lunch packs and goodies, the Management and staff spent a fun afternoon with the residents of the home. Upon arrival, the residents were greeted with a speech by the General Manager of Ramada Plaza Melaka, Mr. Edouard Reizian, followed by the distribution of ang pow packets and goodie bags to the residents. The tossing of the signature Yee Sang was then done to usher in health, prosperity and abundance of luck for all the residents who were then treated to specially prepared food and cake by the Hotel. Supported by the Ramada Caring Club, this visit is part of the social activities carried out by the hotel in reaching out to those around them.

“We enjoy spending this special time with them and hope to bring cheer to them during the auspicious season,” says Edouard Reizian, General Manager“.
