PRESS RELEASE

OFFICIAL OPENING OF THE LARGEST SURAU AMONG HOTELS IN MELAKA AT RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA

Melaka, 12 November 2015 – Ramada Plaza Melaka, proudly announced that its new surau facility, located on level 6 is now available for guests. It is a part of the community project initiated by the hotel as a welcoming space for the muslim community to share and connect.

Officiated by Imams from Masjid Bukit Cina and Surau Kampung Morten, the surau is officially the largest surau among hotels in Melaka and is open from 10am to 10pm, daily.

The surau is carefully planned, especially in terms of placement, layout and can accommodate approximately 50 male worshippers and 35 women worshippers within the main prayer area. It measures 33sqm and 28sqm respectively and is build according to the policies and existing requirements prescribed by the department of Islamic Development Malaysia (JAKIM).

With an investment of over RM 70,000, Ramada Plaza Melaka focuses on providing the best services and facilities for guests.

“We are proud to say that we aim to cater to suit the needs of our fellow Muslim guests. It benefits the purpose of worship and religious activities and is also a way of bringing the community together”, said Mr.Udo Hahn, General Manager of Ramada Plaza Melaka, managed by Wyndham Hotel Group during the official opening.

After the officiating of the Surau, attendees of the opening ceremony then proceeded to Zest to enjoy the renowned buffet lunch.
