Warm Chinese New Year cheers with the elders

Melaka, 19 February 2016- In conjunction with the Chinese New Year festivity, the management and employees of Ramada Plaza Melaka paid a visit to the elderly residents of Rumah Sejahtera, Bukit Baru Melaka in the afternoon today.

The group distributed Ang Pows and charity goody bags to the elderly residents while spending meaningful time with them. The team experienced tossing or 'lou hei' of the Yee Sang with the residents, as sign of abundance luck and happiness for all and then proceeded with lunch sponsored by the hotel.

"We are glad to be here today to visit the elderly residents. It is a yearly event which brings compassion to our society. We really enjoy spending time with them and hope that our visit would bring them cheers during this festivity season", said Jason Bak, Resident Manager. He then added "I am personally moved to see enthusiasm and selflessness displayed by our fellow colleagues in organizing this event".

Rumah Sejahtera, located in Bukit Baru, Melaka is currently housing 40 elderly residents aged 60 and above. The home cares for senior citizens without immediate family members.
