PRESS RELEASE

6th June 2018

RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA COLLABORATES WITH THE CM'S OFFICE TO CELEBRATE RAMADAN WITH THE UNDERPRIVILEGED

Ramada Plaza Melaka hosted its annual Hari Raya Buka Puasa dinner event on 6th June 2018 at the Bunga Raya grand ballroom this time around in collaboration with the Chief Minister's office who was represented by YABhg Puan Hajjah Dalilah, the wife of Chief Minister YAB Tuan Hj Adly Zahari to celebrate with the orphaned kids. The dinner was held as a breaking of fast event during the holy month of Ramadhan where guests together with 50 kids were treated to a sumptuous spread featuring traditional Malaysian signature dishes such as the tender Chicken Rendang Minangkabau served alongside the iconic 'Nasi Impit' dipped in mouth-watering peanut sauce and the classic Beriyani Rice with lamb with a spread of decadent local desserts.

In line with the spirit of the fasting month, Ramada Plaza Melaka in collaboration with the Chief Minister's office shared the joy of the celebration with 50 children as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility project which is also the core of Wyndham Worldwide of which the hotel is part of. The children and their caretakers were specially invited to join the celebrations and were later presented with a token sum called "duit raya" which were given away by the Chief Minister and a bag of goodies for each of the kids' courtesy of Ramada Plaza Melaka.

"We believe that it is important to share with the community around us and the month of Ramadhan is always an extra special time to touch the lives of the less fortunate in the hope of bringing cheer and hope to them in anticipation of the Hari Raya Aidilfitri" said Resident Manager, Jason Bak.

The hotel continues celebrating the Ramadan month with a daily sumptuous Middle Eastern buffet spread at its Zest Restaurant from 7.30pm – 10.30pm, available at RM108 nett for adults and RM78nett (for children). For enquiries and reservations, guests can call Zest at 06-284 8888 extension 8521.
