FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

5th December 2017

RAMADA PLAZA MELAKA SHARES THE JOY OF THE SEASON WITH THE UNDERPRIVILEGED.

Ramada Plaza Melaka was proud to hosts its annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony in the hotel lobby on Tuesday, 5th December 2017 to usher in the festivities for the year end.

Hotel associates adorned in all manners of red ensemble, in-house guests and members of the media gathered together for an evening of celebration in the beautifully decorated lobby. This year, the hotel was proud to host the children from three charitable organizations to join its festivities namely; Yayasan Sunbeam Melaka, Hope Children's Home Bukit Baru and Lighthouse Children's Home, Bukit Senjuang.

The evening started off with a cheerful and entertaining medley of Christmas songs by the carolers from St. Theresa's Church. This was followed by an inspiring welcome speech by General Manager, Mr. Edouard Reizian who sportingly dressed in a Santa's costume to add merriment to the evening's festivities. "We are honored to share this evening, richly filled with tradition with all these young children who have indicated their wishes for the season". We believe in sharing and bringing the season's cheer to the less fortunate which remains as one of our core values" he added.

The ceremony then came to its height with the lighting of the Christmas tree decked with the decorations and the wish cards of the kids from the respective homes. General Manager, Edouard Reizian and Resident Manager, Jason Bak pushed back the magical lever which immediately illuminated the entire lobby with the twinkling lights adding to the already merry ambience.

Guests were then treated to delectable Christmas chocolate and ginger bread cookies specially baked treats, for the occasion by Pastry Chef Ella and her team as Santa and Santarinas handed out specially wrapped cookie packages. The evening culminated with refreshments for all the children and guests at the Bendahara function room.

Prior to this, the Christmas wish of each child had been given to us to be hung on the tree, aptly named Ramada's Wishing Tree. Guests and hotel associates are invited to join in supporting the noble and heartfelt cause by purchasing a gift and fulfill the wish of a child during this season of giving. All gifts purchased, can be passed to our Front Office Desk before the 20th December 2017. The gifts will then be handed to the kids from the respective Homes by the associates together with the members from the Ramada Caring Club during an organized visit towards the end of December 2017.
